

The Wake County Board of Education has been taking families and taxpayers on a roller coaster ride – MAKE IT STOP ON OCTOBER 6TH!

October 6, vote for school board candidates who will:

- bring common sense back to the Wake County schools
- focus on communities and neighborhoods
- listen to parents and taxpayers
- be fiscally responsible and accountable of all dollars
- improve the academic quality for all students

VOTE FOR:

Chris Malone (District 1),
John Tedesco (District 2),
Deborah Prickett (District 7)
or Debra Goldman (District 9)

In addition to the school board elections, there are many other key municipal elections on October 6 and November 3.

If you want fiscal conservatism, government accountability, personal responsibility, and a focus on families and neighborhoods, please vote for:

OCTOBER 6:

Raleigh City Council:

Mayor: Larry D. Hudson, II
At-Large: Champ Claris
District B: John Odom

Cary Town Council:

District A: Jennifer Robinson
District C: Jack Smith

From tea parties and town hall meetings to the ballot box, don't just talk about it, VOTE!

For more information, go to www.wakegop.org

NOVEMBER 3:

Apex Town Council:

Mike Jones
Gene Schulze
Lance Olive

Fuquay-Varina Board of Commissioners:

Cindy Sheldon

Garner Town Council:

Kathy Behringer
Arnold Osborn

Holly Springs Town Council:

Mayor: Dick Sears
Vinnie DeBenedetto
Linda Williams
Tracey Goodwin

Morrisville Town Council:

At-Large: Tom Murry
District 2: Mark Stohlman